

This proposal has the potential to cause extreme interference to radio reception since in effect, all power lines will become radiating "antennas". As a licensed amateur radio operator for over 30 years, (WA2EIO) I am concerned about the effect this interference would have on communications, both on the shortwave bands where I operate, and also on the standard broadcast (AM) band. I urge that this proposal NOT be approved.